November 2019

President's Message * Carrie Battiato

Coming into November, our Club is off to a great start with our fundraising efforts and all our ongoing community service projects. Thank you to everyone who helped make the Applebee's Flapjack Fundraiser a success, especially our event chairs, Paula Deal and Theresa Zarnoski.

As we spend this time of year focusing on everything for which we are thankful, I wanted to extend my heartfelt thanks to all of you. My job is to make sure this Club is running smoothly and accomplishing its purposes, and all of your hard work and dedication makes that so much more easier. So, thank you, everyone, and a happy and blessed Thanksgiving to you and yours.

Also coming up in November is our We Do Care God & Country letters winners' presentation at the city council chambers at city hall on Monday, November 18. It is an honor and a privilege for us to continue this time-honored tradition for our community, and Nancy Cause and I hope you can all join us to recognize the accomplishments of our local youth and honor our military servicemen and servicewomen that evening. Please see our God & Country article in this newsletter for more information.

Looking Back

This month, the February and March 1957 FairViews, vol. 1, nos. 6 and 7, are recapped. If you are interested in reading the newsletters in their entirety, please let me know.

February Program: Mrs. Souché of the Patricia Stevens School will give an interesting talk on charm, beauty and fashions. This is just in time for that spring pick-me-up! Since this will be the annual "Guest Night," members may bring along a friend without the usual fee being paid. Also attending as guests will be officers from eight neighboring clubs. Please make all our guests feel welcome.

April's program will be a Talent Night. Members who can sing, dance, recite, or play an instrument are asked to sign up and share their talents with the Club.

March Program: A currently popular book will be reviewed at the March meeting.

February Ways & Means: Ways & Means will hold a Dessert Bridge and Style Show at Halle's Westgate Room on February 21st at 1:00. A donation of $1.25 is being asked. Homemade desserts will be featured, and Halle's will furnish the fashions with Club members serving as models. A beautiful silver-blue muskrat stole with mink collar and mink tails will be raffled at the dessert bridge. Tickets are 25¢ each or five for $1.

March Ways & Means: The Dessert Bridge and Style Show was a huge social and financial success. Our members looked so lovely as models in the fashion show. Marion Cook's sister won the fur stole.

Ways & Means is also holding a Card Party for members and their husbands on March 29th at 8:30 p.m. at the Community Cabin. Soft drinks, door prizes and late evening refreshments will be available. Tickets will be available at the March meeting, are $1 per person. Tickets are limited so buy yours at the meeting.

February Civic Committee: The Civic Committee regrets that they could not make it possible to arrange for a Polio inoculation clinic for members. However, they are carrying out a publicity campaign in the city urging all people 18 to 40 years of age to see their own doctor to safeguard themselves.

March Civic Committee: The Civic Committee is sponsoring the Fair 'N Share booth this year. A South American theme will be used. This is a good opportunity for new members to be on a very active committee and meet new friends.

February Committee for the Mentally Retarded: The Committee for the Mentally Retarded again urged members to support the sale of the Fur Raffle tickets. This is their one big fund raising project, the proceeds which will be shared by the Mental Health Group.

They reported that their January program was "What's My Line," but the occupations (health inspector, social worker, an organist) were rather hard to figure out. Peanuts in the shell were the snack during the show, which made for a noisy audience! Coffee and pie were served afterwards.

March Nominating Committee: The Nominating Committee will present their slate of candidates for office at this meeting. Members may also nominate candidates. Nominations will remain open until the April meeting, at which time elections will be held.

March By-Laws Committee: The By-Laws Committee has met and prepared revisions. They will be read at the March meeting and will be voted upon at the April meeting.

March Activities Committee: They reported:

- The Bridge and Canasta totals were reported. Tournaments will start in early April.

- Ice skating is retiring for the season. Eleven members participated at Winterhurst on Wednesday afternoons.
- The Fairnighters Sport Dance will be held on March 15th. Tickets are still available.

The March Welfare Committee presented a recap of the goals of the committees for the Mentally Retarded and the Mental Health group.

February News & Views: It was reported that members vacationed in North Miami Beach, Chicago, Ft. Lauderdale, and Lake Huron. Another member changed her living & dining room colors from Swedish Red to mauve. One member's prints are being shown at the Smithsonian Museum in D.C., and another at the Philadelphia Print Club Gallery. A few members acted, or will soon act, in plays. Another member is taking courses to become a Girl Scout Leader, another is the new Speech Therapist for Fairview Park Schools, and the husband of another member is running for Councilman-at-Large.

March News & Views: It was reported that members vacationed or visited Pittsburgh, Rome, New York, Indianapolis, and Ft. Lauderdale. The daughter of a member was featured in the Press, as a Scottish Highland dancer in the recent Folk Festival. Three do-it-yourselfers are redecorating their houses or refinishing furniture, and six members are moving. Another member is proud to announce that she now has her driver's license!

Members are now able to place an Ad in the "Fair-Views" Classified section. For only 25¢, an ad for anything to sell or swap, wanting to buy or service, can be placed. The deadline is always the first Monday of the month. The first ad for sale was a 45 RPM record player in good condition; the first "want to buy" ad was for a small dinette set with preferably a Formica top.

An interest sheet was attached to the newsletter.

Just go to smile.amazon.com instead of Amazon.com and select Fairview Park Women's Club for the charitable organization. They will remember our organization for any other purchases you make again. We will receive a check for all of the purchases quarterly. So, ask everyone you know who has Amazon Prime to use smile.amazon.com and donate to our great organization without it costing them anything!

Cookbooks/Addendum * Barb Gillmore & Diane Faile

Christmas is coming! Yes, we know it's just Halloween, but we're letting you know that if you are making your list, check to see if our cookbook and/or addendum might be just the thing to complete that gift. Or how about a hostess gift? Give us a call or email if you'd like one. The cookbook is $6.00, the addendum is $5.00, or it's just $10.00 if you purchase them together. Happy holidays!

Lunch with Santa * Lynn Coletto, Sally Lisowski, & Mary Jane Riddlebaugh

Ho-ho-ho! We are approximately five weeks away from one of the merriest fundraisers around Christmas: Lunch with Santa. We would first like to thank all of our wonderful "elves" for volunteering to assist prior to the event and the day of the lunch. If anyone missed out on the opportunity to sign up for the day of Lunch with Santa, please let one of us know. We are more than happy to put you on the schedule. Once it gets a wee bit closer to December 7, we will let all of the volunteers know what to expect and when. A huge thanks to those helping secure the pizza donations. Lynn and Lori have/are working on getting information out to the school district, newspapers, community calendars, and other social networking venues. Please encourage family and friends to join us for a simply enjoyable Saturday with Santa and Mrs. Claus (and Olaf). I know Deb is anxiously awaiting those reservations. Please keep an eye on your emails for any new information for the Lunch with Santa. And as always, thank you all for your help and dedication to making this such a fun and successful fundraiser.

Wine Tasting * Nancy Cause, Carrie Sullivan, & Sally Lisowski

February 22 will be here before we know it. Please start thinking about what you are going to donate to the silent auction. It's not too early to get it to Carol McAlonis or Helen Davis. Make sure you fill out the description paper that is attached to the newsletter. Give as much detail as you can. It'll save the ladies a lot of time later.

We will email everyone a flyer to hand out at your holiday parties for your friends and family. Tickets will go on sale in January.

Silent Auction * Helen Davis, Carol McAlonis, and Barb Gillmore

It's time once again to start thinking about the silent auction. For those of you who would like to help us, homemade, solicited, or purchased items are always welcome, and we can always use lottery tickets. The three of us are happy to receive any donations you may have. If you have any organizations or places of business that you plan to solicit, please let us know the contact information so that we don't duplicate our requests. We plan to send the donation letters out by mid-November. Currently, we do not need baskets, but may ask for some as we get nearer to the wine tasting date.

If you'd like to see the many items we had in our last two silent auctions, go to the Scrapbook Directory under the Members Only section of the website. Pictures of the items and a copy of our program are available in the two scrapbooks.

The donation letter and form are attached, and copies will also be available at the meetings. If you are unable to print the attachment and need the letter, please contact one of us and we will be happy to deliver it to you.

On Monday, December 2, at 7 p.m., we'll meet at Leslie Rayle's home to discuss The Alice Network by Kate Quinn. "In an enthralling new historical novel...two women — a female spy recruited to the real-life Alice Network in France during World War I and an unconventional American socialite searching for her cousin in 1947 — are brought together in a mesmerizing story of courage and redemption."

On Monday, February 3, at 7 p.m., we'll meet at Lori's home to discuss We Are All Good People Here by Susan Rebecca White. "Spanning more than thirty years of American history...[this book] is 'a captivating...meaningful, resonant story' ...about two flawed but well-meaning women clinging to a lifelong friendship that is tested by the rushing waters of history and their own good intentions."

An RSVP is not required, but a heads-up that you're planning to come is appreciated so the host can gather enough chairs.

We will be adding Christmas trees made from Reese's chocolates and Hershey kisses and Rudolph reindeer brownies. Christmas greeting cards signed by our membership will be part of each gift bag.

God & Country Letter-Writing Contest * Carrie Battiato & Nancy Cause

We have been very busy screening the 91 letters that were turned in from the 3 schools. Thank you to Kathy Rosol, Rosanne Papadimoulis, Cathy Collings, Mary Jo Campbell, Sharon Bowles, Pam Beamer, Barb Kadleck, and Sally Lisowski for all of your input and suggestions in screening the letters and choosing 10 for us to judge. By the time the newsletter comes out, we will also have judged the letters, narrowing it down and choosing two winners per school. Thank you to Barb Kadleck and Lisa Morrison from our club, and Mary Jo Dougherty, and Sue and Jim Dunson from the Fairview community for judging the letters.

We have our emcee, Chip Kullik, from WMJI radio. We've asked politicians to attend and hand out proclamations to the winners. We will be ordering plaques, paid for by the FP Youth Association, for the winners and certificates of participation for all of the students. The color guard from Post 738 will be there to present colors. We are hoping Harriet Beekman herself will be there.

Thank you to our bakers and set-up and serve committee for the reception. We'll contact you closer to the event with reminders and times of set up.

Our general meeting will be held following the reception downstairs in the Dunson Room. Please come and attend the presentation at 6:45 p.m. at city hall in the council chambers on the third floor. Come in through the back door and either take the steps or elevator to the third floor. The winners and their families will be invited to come downstairs for a small reception, after which we will have our general meeting as close to 7:30 p.m. as possible.

Helping Hands * Jane Ball & Kathy Rosol

We want to thank everyone who so generously brought in food items for meals on wheels. We delivered the donations on Tuesday morning, and as usual, they were very appreciative of our donations.

At our November meeting we will be signing Christmas cards for our veterans, as well as for the O'Neill health care facility in Fairview Park. Please bring any Christmas cards you have (no glitter, please) to the meeting. We will sign them during our meeting that evening.
