FAIRVIEW PARK JUNIOR WOMEN'S CLUB

VOL. III No. 3 NOVEMBER 1958

NOVEMBER 17, 1958

GENERAL MEETING

BAIN CABIN

8:00 P.M.

ROBERT DEITSCH, Foreign Affairs Editor of the Cleveland Press will tell us about "Europe--1958."

Program Chairman Pat Westfall reminds us that this will NOT be a Husbands Night program.

Please bring some toys for the Civic Committee's Hearing and Speech Center project (details on page 2).

Another reminder--Circle Workshop articles will be on display at the meeting and orders will be taken then---see page 4 for more information.

Hostesses at the meeting will be Doris Neff and Pru Ross.

Social Chairman is Carolyn Stuart, co-chairman is Norma Golladay.

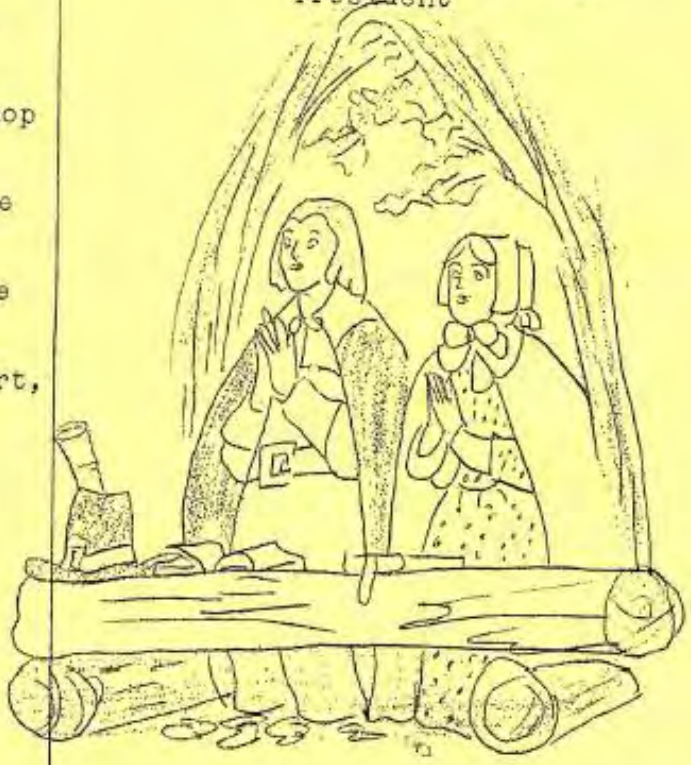
Happy Thanksgiving To All!

A WORD FROM VIRGINIA

If you're looking for a way to take the grey out of the November days that lie ahead, why don't you kill two birds with one stone and hold a Ways and Means card party for your friends? Jay Hamilton is the one to contact for details.

Although it seems a bit early, may I take this opportunity to wish you and your families a very bounteous and happy Thanksgiving as we all join in the observance of this annual holiday set apart for the national gratitude to God for our prosperity.

Virginia Mayberry
President



CONCERNING COMMITTEES.....
Betty Jo Snyder

IT'S CARD PARTY TIME!

The month of November has been designated as "Card Party Month" by the WAYS & MEANS COMMITTEE.

Invite your friends and neighbors for bridge or canasta in your home. Each guest will donate one dollar to this Ways & Means project. Hostesses will be exempt from payment because their contributions will be applied to the cost of refreshments.

Following your party, send the proceeds to Jay Hamilton who is keeping a record of those who support the project.

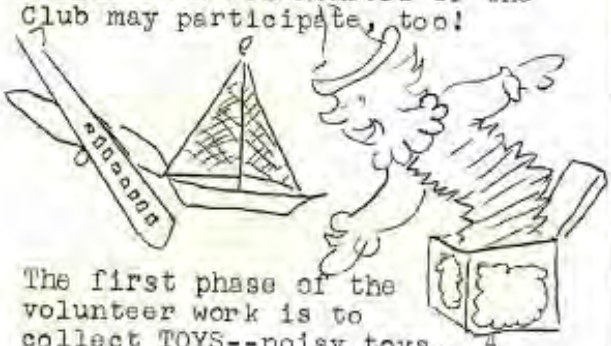
The CIVIC COMMITTEE is "off and running" on another new endeavor. This time it's volunteer work for the Cleveland Hearing and Speech Center--and all members of the Club may participate, too!



The first phase of the volunteer work is to collect TOYS--noisy toys. A collection will be made at the next general MEETING. Here are some of the toys suggested--pop guns, xylophones, fire engines (items that make a particular noise) dolls, doll house, doll furniture, balls, tops, and small toy objects. The group also needs scraps of felt material.

Civic Committee Chairman, Mery Everett, wishes to thank all the girls who helped with the telephone survey for the Combined Health Fund.

Next Civic Meeting will be November 10 at the home of Dee Davis.

ABOUT ACTIVITIES.....

HOOP-LA!!
The FAIRNIGHTERS Dance Club will hold its next dance, the Turkey Trot, on Friday, NOVEMBER 21 at Olmsted Lodge. Sneak a Hula-Hoop away from the kiddies, bring it along and there will be a contest with a prize for the one who can keep his or her hoop spinning for the longest time. After all that exercise a buffet supper will be served. A limited number of guest tickets are available at $5.00 a couple. Call Midge Strong for guest reservations.

Fairnighters' Chairman Pat Pensiero announces that there are a few openings in the Club. Dues are now $12.00 for the remaining four dances. Any couple wishing to join call Edna D'Amato.

The BRIDGE season is in full swing. Midge Strong is conducting a class in Beginning Bridge.

Helen Packal, BOWLING chairman reports that through the cooperation of the Olympic Alleys, baby-sitting at the West Park Y is now available for bowling mothers. There is a fee of 50¢ per child.

NEW MEMBERS

IN THE SPOTLIGHT
Betty Lou Marek

PATRICIA CAMPBELL
She likes antique glass,
African Violets and cooking.
Also works as a nurse
when no one is looking!

JEAN CARTER
From Wisconsin she came but he's from our state.
Bridge, piano and gardening fill up her slate.

ROBINA CLINE
She has two little boys named Stewart and Bobby.
Welfare's her interest and swimming's her hobby.

JACKIE COPE
Born in England, she came here
as a small tot.
She bowls, collects records and likes music a lot.

MARIANNE DAHM
Girl Scout work takes her time
and homemaking's a chore;
She's a room mother, den mother,
and a real mother of four.

HILDEGARDE DIFIORE
He's a musician,
they met at a dance;
They love music and now two children complete this romance.

MARY FOX
They met on a ski trip
where there was no snow.
They both are "good sports"
and she likes to sew.

SHIRLEY GILBERT
Kathleen is their girl,
Raymond and Jimmy, the boys;
swimming, sewing bowling, bridge
bring her leisure joys.

ALMA GILLOTTI
A job and Girl Scout work keep Alma on the go but she still finds the time to golf and to sew.

MARGARET HULL
They're both from Elyria
but such is fate's perversity they never met till they attended Cincinnati University.

RUTH JAHNKE
Daughter Patty, 18 months, gives them "at home" fun
But they like to go dancing when day's work is done.

DOES THIS EVER HAPPEN TO YOU?

The doorbell's ringing-- there's the phone.
My dog is barking,
    she'll wake the baby.

What can I do
    But stand here and glower--
'Cause naturally, dawling,
    I'M IN THE SHOWER!

WELFARE'S WAYS

The MENTAL HEALTH GROUP has postponed its regular party at Cleveland Psychiatric Institute until Monday, November 10. Plans call for a Monte Carlo Night. Call Gini Bbevoort if you'd like to go along.

The Welfare trip to BLOSSOM HILL will be Tuesday, November 25. The group will leave at 6:30 p.m. and be back no later than 10:30. Everyone interested in helping with this party is invited to attend a meeting at Harriet Kraemer's on Thursday, Nov. 20 at 8:45 p.m. Plans will also be made at this meeting for the Christmas parties at Cleveland Psychiatric Institute and Apple Creek State Hospital.

WANTED--WANTED--WANTED
Clothing in good condition for girls ages 12 to 18 to be taken to Blossom Hill. If you have anything suitable, please bring it to the meeting on Nov. 17 or call Harriet Kraemer.

DON'T FORGET
Circle Workshop articles will be on display at the November meeting. On sale will be rugs, mats, place mats, cutting boards, wooden stools, and other items. Orders will also be taken for Christmas "friendship wreaths" made at Circle Workshop.

Aid for Mentally Retarded Group wishes to thank these girls who baked for the October party at Apple Creek State Hospital--Edythe Adams, Annabelle Algranti, Helen Armstrong, Alice Atkinson, Helen Barnstead, Evy Becker, Julie Bell, Dorothy Berry, Lucy Bielak, Bea Bishop, Virginia Bivin, Florence Brennan, Suzanne Brinker, Marian Carrick, June Cortelyou, Mary Jayne Cover,

PITTER-PATTer
Patt Mitchell

The other day EVELYN KEITH picked me up for our bridge group session and she had lots of new for me.

Evelyn had met ALGIA NESS in the hall at Fairview Park Hospital. Algia is a new volunteer and is working there every Thursday from 9-3. Algia and her family of boys made an 8700 mile trip to California this summer with Disneyland a trip standout.

A group of five couples from FPJWC are spending a weekend in Oglebay Park in Wheeling--they are the KEITHS, HAMILTONS, FISHERS, DAVIS, AND CHRYSLERS.

It's a girl for SHIRLEY MOIR. Sandra, born October 13, makes it two boys and two girls for the Moirs. It's a boy for THEA STEINMETZ, who gave birth to Arthur Philip, Jr. on October 25

KAY AND PAUL LEIMKUEHLER spent a thrilling pre-election week in Havana, Cuba. Kay reports that hers was the only hat in church, the Cubans were wearing mantillas. Kay's mother was frantic with worry as they returned via Cubana Airlines the same weekend that Cuban rebels seized a Cubana plane.

(Editor's note: Congratulations are now in order at the Mitchell household. Patt and Mike became the proud parents of a baby boy on Nov. 4.)

Marj Doganhardt, Mary DeCrane, Margaret Hull, Harriet Kraemer, Dorothy Palascak, and Becky Strain.

This proves that THEY ALSO SERVE WHO ONLY STAND AND BAKE--(with apologies to Mr. J. Milton!)

CAROL'S CLIPPINGS
Carol Waldner

The judges must have had quite a time deciding who was to receive a prize at the Fairnighters Masquerade Dance.

JAY HAMILTON received the prize for the prettiest costume. Her attire is rather difficult to describe in this, "a family newspaper." All questions will be referred to Jay.

JO AND IRWIN CHRYSLER won a prize for their wonderful characterization of a lunatic and his keeper, a nurse. Irwin was terribly convincing in his part.

As the funniest pair HESTER and MEL BURDICK walked off with the honors. Hester was a riot as a cannibal and her unfortunate friend the white hunter came complete with pith helmet and his own stewing pot.

Finishing out of the money but well worth a word or two were: PATT MITCHELL as a blushing bride with her husband following close behind toting a shotgun.

PAT AND DAN PENSIERO as moon and rocket, respectively.

As Indian maidens, FLORENCE FISHER, UNIVERSE KRIST, and HENRIETTA SPETH were guaranteed to make any brave's heart skip a beat.

MILT AND JO TULSON were resplendent as Apache Dancers. A most clever witch was PAULETTE HARWOOD, hubby PAUL was cleverly disguised as a broom.

In the husbands' corner VIC HAHN must be mentioned as a very authentic Emmett Kelly type clown.

You'd better start thinking about next year's costume right now 'cause the competition will be tough!

CUTTING CORNERS
Jean Carter

EVY BECKER and family are all enthused about the house they are building on Grayton Road. They have seven acres of scenery!

KAY AND BOB BAHER have plans almost complete for their new home in westerly Bay Village.

Still in the talking stages of building are PHYLL SELTZER and her husband. They need "room to run" for their dogs and their newly adopted son--3 year old Kim. Phyll is working two days a week now a Karamu.

A summer trip that was cancelled because of chickenpox is now possible for JEAN ASHBY and her children. They'll go to Chicago for Thanksgiving.

A thought for Thanksgiving

Thank God for dirty dishes,
They have a tale to tell.
While others go hungry
We're eating very well.

With health and home and happiness,
I shouldn't want to fuss,
For by this stack of evidence
God's very good to us.
